BOUNTY ON SILK. About nine states have now offered a bounty two of these border on thirteen counties of Mary. land. To those who doubt the policy of boun tice, generally, and we profess to be of the num would still ask-may not self-defence dement, what policy would forbid, if left to our discretion! But we look on the application for & bounty on bilk in a different light from many others—we look on it in the light of an offer for information on a subject, in which, is a nation, we are greatly behind others, whose advaninges are inferior to ours. Has it not in the army and in the navy been deemed expedient to send officers abroad repeatedly for the express purpose of importing at the public expense, the modification of the license law of this State.
